PRICE ANALYSIS

- a. Adequate competition.
- b. Thirty notices were sent including two MBEs and one WBE. Four solicitation packages were issued, none were MBEs or WBEs. Four bids were received.
- c. In comparison, the total amount of this contract represents a 25% increase from the previous contract amount awarded in April 2003. This increase can be attributed to the rising manufacturer cost for fuel and material needed to produce these products.
